Note: You are able to interact with this PDF. When ready, please click the "Login" Button to continue.

Justin Starr CS-319 UI/UX Design and Development Final Project August 13, 2023 Note: You are able to interact with this PDF. On this screen, press "Track Loan Payback" to view the "Track Loan Payback" screen or press "Log out" to return to the "Entry" page.

Justin Starr CS-319 UI/UX Design and Development Final Project August 13, 2023

Note: You are able to interact with this PDF. On this screen, you can press "Log out" to return to the "Entry Page" or click "Back to Home" button to return to "Home" page.

Track Loan Payback Screen User Picture (clickable button that takes user to their profile/preferences screen) Welcome Text field (non-clickable "Log out" (clickable button that when element that displays welcome pressed logs the user out and takes them to message and user name) the entry page Blue Border indicates the area of user focus. This changes as the user Scroll-Up Button (clickable element enables user to navigates throughout the application. The Welcome, Vangie! scroll back to the top of the page for pages that contain focus always starts at the User Picture Log out more information/elements than can be displayed on a button for this screen single screen) Λ Screen Title text field (non-clickable element) ► Loan Payback Progress Text Fields (non-clickable elements) displays Loan ID: 863559 Sector: Retail relevant loan payment information The loans attributes and actions are grouped together within this box. The Country: Philippines field contains non-clickable text field elements that display information to the user about the loans repayment progress as well as clickable navigational Loan Amount: $250.00 button elements. Scroll Bar (non-clickable element because the user is utilizing T9 technologies on an embedded Length of Loan: 7 months device with directional buttons only) Status bar shows how many payments have been made (indicated by green 2 of 7 Payments Completed filled boxes) and how many payments remain (indicated by unfilled boxes) is The Scroll Bar automatically resizes based on the more engaging to user and makes them feel a sense of accomplishment as amount of information/elements displayed on the each payment is made. (non-clickable elements) current screen. ► Last Payment Posted: 05/05/2015 Text Field (non-clickable element) displays the Text Field (non-clickable element) displays the date the last payment was date that the next payment is due for the loan posted for the loan) "See Payments History" button (clickable element) when pressed navigates Next Payment Due: 06/05/2015 ◀ the user to a screen that lists all payments that have been made on the loan "Make A Payment" button (clickable element) when pressed navigates user to the make payment screen for the current loan "Back to Home" button (clickable element) when pressed takes the user back to the Home Screen World Wide Lending Scroll-Down Button (clickable element enables user to scroll to the bottom of the page for pages that contain more information/elements than can be displayed on a Application Name (non-clickable element) single screen)